

941 – adding elegance and improved visibility to the low level environment

941 Step Light

The low profile and elegant styling of 941 luminaires underscore their wide range of design possibilities. Offered with both compact fluorescent and incandescent lamps, the luminaire offers rugged construction in a sleek, small scale. A choice of four faceplate designs allows the specifier to satisfy numerous low level lighting challenges

Benefits

- Protected against moisture, dust and insects
- Low-glare illumination, free from streaks or striations
- Quick installation and maintenance
- Eliminates potential for misapplication
- Provides additional design flexibility

Features

- Sealed and gasketed
- Specular Alzak hammertone reflectors
- Firmly secured reflector and electrical assembly
- Available for installation in all types of wall construction

Application

- Walkways

941 Step Light

Versions

