

Low-level illumination for small areas

SoftGlo LED Night Light

Softglo LED Recessed Night Lights provide low level illumination for patient rooms, corridors, steps or other commercial or residential applications. The LED light source provides 50,000 hours of service, can be specified in two colors and are available in a variety of finishes.

Benefits

- Perfect for small illuminating spaces
- Available in numerous finishes and faceplate styles that are complimentary to many different spaces

Features

- Adjustable backbox to accommodate varied wall construction
- No exposed fasteners on faceplate
- Available with white or amber LEDs

Application

- Hospitals and Care Centers