

A definitive design statement with balance and proportions

Vetro Downlight Elements

Glass is a pure design material that has benefitted us throughout the ages being both functional and aesthetic. All of the Vetro primary glass used for Decorative Downlights and Pendants is hand blown. Multiple layers of glass, each containing a discreet

Benefits

- The perfect complement to a Calculite Downlight
- The European hand blown glass provide a rich and smooth accent to your lighting
- Fresh aesthetic to meet your architectural needs

Features

- Complete family of 2", 4", 6", and 7" Vetro downlight decorative elements
- All apertures have round options
- while 2" also has square option
- Acrylic and glass options available

Application

- Fashion
- Office
- Residential

Vetro Downlight Elements

Versions

