

Built for extreme environments

60 Series Exits

The 60 Line Max is designed to meet the demands of today's most extreme environments. An attractive housing constructed of durable die cast with a polycarbonate backplate and cover. Built for extreme temperatures and vandalproof applications.

Benefits

- Built for extreme environments
- Designed for increased protection against incidental or intentional abuse

Features

- Housing constructed of a combination of heavy-duty die cast aluminum and injection molded polycarbonate
- Housing is powder coated in white, black or gray
- Universal models consist of two faces, backplate and canopy

Application

- Exit and Emergency
- Cleanrooms

60 Series Exits

Versions

