

Attractive, durable, lightweight

LINCS Undercabinet

The Little Inch Connecting System (LINCS) sets the standard for flexible, inconspicuous task lighting. LINCS unique labor-saving plug-together design affords premium quality at a low installed cost. The attractive extruded aluminum design dissipates heat, is durable, lightweight and corrosion resistant. Miniature 1" profile. Fluorescent lighting provides ideal rendering of task areas and displayed objects. Integral Occupancy Sensor available to reduce energy consumption.

Benefits

- Ease of installation
- Flexibility in the field
- Designed to be durable, lightweight and corrosion resistant

Features

- Miniature 1" deep profile
- Modular design
- Available in white, black, satin aluminum and antimicrobial white

Application

- Hospitals and Care Centers

LINCS Undercabinet

Versions

