

Rough / Vibration Service

100A/RS 250V 60PK

Philips Family of Specialty Incandescents provide the perfect light for dramatic accents and display lighting as well as general lighting in a variety of applications. Rough Service incandescent lamps have an exceptionally strong filament for which a special filament wire is used, which makes these lamps extremely suitable for places where shocks, bumps and vibrations frequently occur. The clear version, with its completely visible filament, is a brilliant light source, whereas the inside-frosted lamp is used wherever well diffused light is required.
